

COURSE LIST - Alnwick, England - Spring Semester, 2018

HONS 260, Britain in the Tudor Era. Politics, personalities and religion in early Modern Britain. 3 Credits. Satisfies goal 5.

HONS 231, Contemporary Britain. Analysis of contemporary social, political and economic conditions of England, with emphasis on Northumberland. This course fulfills general education requirements. 3 credits. Satisfies goal 6 and Diversity Credit.

HONS 240, Aspects of Medieval English Society. Study of English society in the middle ages (approximately 1066-1485) making specific reference to the rich heritage of this period to be found in Northumbria. 3 credits. Satisfies goal 6.

SW 195 - Social Welfare and Democratic Citizenship. Democratic citizenship and social welfare, state institutions and citizen engagement locally, nationally and globally. 3 Cr. Satisfies Goal 9.

CEEP 262 - Human Growth and Development. A life-span approach to growth and development; physical, intellectual, emotional, and social phases as related to total growth. 3 Cr. Satisfies Goal 5.

CSD 230 - Global Perspectives on Communication Disorders. Comparative perspectives and understanding of communication disorders around the globe; the intersection of educational and health issues with communication disorders. 3 Cr. Satisfies Goal 8.

Students can take up to 3 credits of online instruction back to St. Cloud State.